

ARCANUM OUTING TO RIVER VIEW

Four Trips of Big Steamboat Required to Carry the Enthusiastic Crowd

DAY WAS AN IDEAL ONE

Athletic Sports, Lawn Lunches, Dancing, Walks in "Lovers Lane" for Amusement of Excursionists.

Four big boat loads of merry, pleasure seeking Arcanumites with their wives and children, were carried down the Potomac river yesterday to River View. The occasion was in celebration of "Arcanum Day." The excursion was under the auspices of the grand council, Royal Arcanum.

Day an Ideal One.

The first boat at 10 o'clock took down nearly a thousand people, ladies, and children predominating. Three other trips were made, and when the last boat load left the wharf about 6 o'clock, nearly 3,000 people made up the party.

The day was an ideal one. Nothing better in the line of weather could have been wished for.

Lunches were served on the lawns.
Covers were laid under the wide spreading branches of the trees about 1 o'clock, and the hungry crowds were served with delectable viands, which all enjoyed with a keen relish.

Athletic Sports.

Baseball games, bowling matches, and athletic "stunts," including high and broad jumps, shot puts, 100 and 200-yard races, were among the things carded for the day's sport. Mr.
Thomas Calver was chairman of the committee on amusement. Grand Regent J. L. Beale was chairman and general manager of the excursion, with these assistants: R. P. Hopkins, C. P.
Bell, and Mrs. Lizzie W. Calver.

The winners in the several events of the day were: Charles Richards, Raymond Walker, Jay Colwell, Mary Tyndall, Thomas Walker, Joseph Young, Ruth Stanton, Blanche Morrison, Russell Willard, Warren Mose, Pearl Wells, Virginia Brinkley, Miss Willis, Mrs.
Bruno, Miss Emma Boyer, Barnell West, Richard Zappone, Samuel Boyd, Fanny Caton, Frances Froment, John Stokes, and James Stokes.

In the afternoon, the pavilion was filled with dancers. The return trips were made late in the evening, the final boat reaching the wharf after the midnight hour.

B. & O. OFFICIALS' ANNUAL OUTING

Affairs of Operating Department Discussed at Deer Park Session.

BALTIMORE, June 23.—The most successful annual meeting of officers of the operating department of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad ever held closed here this afternoon.

Two interesting sessions were held today and prominent among those in attendance were George L. Potter, third vice president and head of the operating department; George M. Shriver, assistant to the president; D. D. Carothers, chief engineer; J. E. Greiner, assistant chief engineer; D. B. Martin, manager of passenger traffic; E. Austin, and C.
W. Bassett, general passenger agents;
T. W. Galleher, general freight agent;
L. G. Haas, assistant general manager; Arthur Hale, general superintendent of transportation, and Messrs. George H.
Campbell, C. C. F. Bent, Robert Finney and W. C. Loree, general superintendents.

Mr. Fitzgerald, president, and seemed greatly pleased with the record made and being made by his little army of assistants in the operation of the road.

The question of the best movement of cars to get out of them the greatest earning powers was discussed at considerable length. While it was pointed out to the operating officers that the average mileage per car per day is the maximum of any road in the world the general manager expressed the desire to still further increase the mileage and is firm in the belief that it can be done.

Mr. Fitzgerald in one of his talks said:

"We want to make the earnings of the next fiscal year far exceeded those of the year closing with the end of this month, and which will be the banner one in the company's history. I know that we can do that and hope that as soon as we get back to our regular places every man will settle down and do his best. I am going after it as hard as I can and think that every man here should do the same. With the confidence that you will, and with traffic conditions practically the same as now, I feel sure that it will be done."

The feature of the afternoon session was an interesting address by Mr.
Shriver, the assistant to the president.

of West River, Their Destination.

Thirty happy boy songsters of old St.
John's Episcopal Church choir will have the red letter week of their lives when they leave on Monday for their annual fortnight choir outing, which this year will be at the Mapleton Hotel at the mouth of the West River, Maryland.

Boys' Choir Outing.

The choir outing is one of the longed-for rewards of service in the choir and the funds for the excursion are raised by special concerts given by the boys themselves and by choir benefits. To many of the boys it is the one opportunity they have of leaving the city during the warm weather and they make the most of the opportunity.

The boys will gather at the Baltimore and Ohio station on Monday morning, and a train will be taken for Annapolis, Md., where a steamer will be boarded and a trip made down Chesapeake Bay until the mouth of the West River is reached.

Camp will be pitched immediately on arriving and the choir emblem, a tattered flag, whose every tear tells of a battle with the elements, will be flung to the breeze. The two weeks will pass rapidly with fishing, sailing, bathing, baseball and other games, occupying every minute.

The party is in charge of Henry H.
Freeman, organist, and choir master of St. John's Church. Mrs. Freeman, wife of the choir master, acts as surgeon general of the camp, and has provided a large medicine chest to treat the many cases of sunburn, cut feet, bruises, sea weighed only three-quarters of a pound at birth.

A passing automobile rushed the child from the house to the hospital in the hope of saving her life. She was placed in an incubator and everything known to science was done in the hope of keeping her alive.
